

Montenegro Environmentally Sensitive Tourist Areas Project (MESTAP): Solid Waste Management Consultancy (Montenegro)

Client:

The World Bank

Period:

2008-2009

Narrative description of project:

The objective of the consultancy is to create an ecologically and sustainable solid waste collection and disposal system, to maintain a clean, environmentally attractive coastal area in Montenegro coastal municipalities.

This will be achieved by designing and construction of a new sanitary landfill at the location of coastal municipality of Bar.

This will also be achieved through rehabilitating the current municipal disposal sites that operate without sanitary conditions and closing the current disposal sites in an environmentally acceptable manner.

Consultancy works comprises all objectives of the above mentioned.

Description of actual services provided:

The expert of INTECUS is assigned with the review of existing EIA and design of the foreseen new landfill site at the Municipality of Bar. Also review and technical advisory with refer to the bidding documents and of the tendering process is part of this assignment.

